

Annual Swiss Physiology Meeting 2025

02 September
U113, Uni Muesmatt, DCBP

Sponsorship booklet

Information about the meeting:

The meeting is organized annually, by the section Physiology of Life Sciences Switzerland.

We aim to bring together Swiss physiologists to showcase and disseminate novel developments in our field in a familiar and friendly atmosphere. The chosen framework provides ample opportunity for scientific exchange and discussion of novel experimental techniques and equipment.

We also aim to highlight and celebrate excellent research conducted by young physiologists by awarding the prestigious “Young Investigator Awards”. These awards are partially sponsored by Stiftung für Physiologie” (former Oetliker foundation), therefore, we especially appreciate industry sponsors who would like to support the young talent.
