

Annual Swiss Physiology Meeting 2026

September 03

The School of Engineering and Architecture of Fribourg (HEIA-FR),
Edouard Gremaud Auditorium.

Sponsorship booklet

Information about the meeting:

The meeting is organized annually by the Physiology Section of Life Sciences Switzerland.

We aim to bring together Swiss physiologists to showcase and disseminate novel developments in our field in a familiar and friendly atmosphere. The chosen framework provides ample opportunity for scientific exchange and discussion of novel experimental techniques and equipment.

This year, the Keynote talks will be given by Andreas Draguhn (University of Heidelberg, DE), who works on neuro- and pathophysiology, and Susanna Zierler (Johannes Kepler University Linz, AT), who works in pharmacology.

We also aim to highlight and celebrate excellent research conducted by young physiologists by awarding the prestigious “Young Investigator Awards”. These awards are partially sponsored by Stiftung für Physiologie” (former Oetliker foundation), therefore, we especially appreciate industry sponsors who would like to support the young talent.
